OUR EDITORS' GUIDE TO HEALTH, BEAUTY & STYLE

MOTHER:

"My daughter has taught me never to underestimate the power of shoes."

—Jody Bennett,
Georgetown,
South Carolina

DAUGHTER:

"People know I'm Southern when I drop the y'all bomb."

—Kassie Rempel,
Washington, D.C.

MOTHER & DAUGHTER STYLE

Winter Essentials

Kassie Rempel, owner of D.C.'s shoe boutique SimplySoles, and her mom, Jody Bennett, share their cold weather must-haves. →

MOTHER'S STYLE

"I live in a golf community in Georgetown, South Carolina, so my look tends to be more casual than my fashionista daughter's. Kassie keeps me outfitted in to-die-for shoes, and then I simply fill in with basics like a quilted coat and plaid scarf that never really age. Now if only I could say the same for me!"

People know I'm Southern when: they walk into my kitchen.

Favorite store: Anthropologie—other than SimplySoles, of course.

My all-time best bargain: A black silk skirt that I bought for $10 in Winston-Salem and am still wearing 25 years later.

Jody Bennett,
"My style is subtle
and unfussy.
Nothing too fancy
or flashy, please."

DAUGHTER'S STYLE

"My favorite look is mixing feminine bows and ruffles with edgier items such as these convertible riding boots and the military-inspired coat, which has a comfy, high collar that keeps my neck warm during the frosty D.C. winters."

My style is: centered on accessories that make a statement.

I love that I inherited my mom's: slender, muscular calves. I have a hunch they're why my husband fell for me.

Favorite place to find a bargain: Treat, a sample sale boutique in Alexandria, Virginia.

Favorite item in my closet: built-in shelves for my shoe collection. *

Kassie Rempel
"For me, shoes
are more than a finishing touch."
